

OPTIONAL GEODETIC CONSTRUCTION
 In order to increase the warp resistance of the wing and stab, "geodetic" construction may be used. The straight ribs are omitted, except at the centers, tips, and polyhedral joints. The criss-crossed geodetic ribs are substituted, using the ghosted lines to position them. The stab center section remains unchanged; the wing center section is as shown

SWAT
 Designed and Drawn by Don Alberts
 Drawn for MAN by Jerry Peck